1. The SMA has requested that Professors Kuczinsky and Bülow of the University of Berlin set up an office to collect data relative to the former armament industry in Western Germany. The information to be sought will reveal what combinations and relationships exist between capitalism, production and personalities. The office will be provided with biographical records, address books, telephone directories, economic-scientific works, and similar documentary material.

2. The order for the establishment of this bureau has been classified top secret and staff members have been pledged to secrecy. The leading staff men are Dr. Brüttigan and Steinke, a bank expert.

Comment: [REDACTED] General Kashnin ordered a thorough study be made of the railroad system in the American and British Zones.)
